

2010 ASEE North Midwest Section
Business Meeting
Mankato State University - Mankato, MN

Resolutions Committee Report

WHEREAS the faculty and administration of Minnesota State University, Mankato have been most gracious hosts by extending generous hospitality and special efforts to provide a modest registration fee for attending member os the Seventy-Second Annual American Society for Engineering Education - North Midwest Section Meeting. and

WHEREAS the 2010 Section Chair and members of the 2010 Minnesota State University, Mankato ASEE Planning Committee, speakers and panel members provided a rewarding and stimulating program dedicated to the theme, "Engineering Education - What Works," and

WHEREAS support was provided by the Dean of the College of Science, Engineering, and Technology and also by the sponsor, Bolton and Menk, Inc., and

WHEREAS the ASEE North Midwest Section officers and the ASEE Zone III Chair met with attendees and committees to discuss various matters of policy leading to new considerations to enhance engineering education, thereby, contributing to making this a highly successful 2010 conference, and

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that all of the attendees do express their sincere appreciation to all who were responsible for the success of the Seventy-Second Annual Meeting of the American Society for Engineering Education - North Midwest Section. It has served as an inspiration to providing innovation and creative approaches in meeting our responsibilities in the education of our engineering students.

DATED this twenty-second day of October, 2010 in Mankato, Minnesota and presented by the Resolutions Committee comprised of :

Verne C. Cutler
Charles McIntyre